

Agency Services

Discover the unparalleled benefits of Alter Domus' agency services platform, designed to seamlessly integrate with your lending business. With our expert agency teams strategically positioned across the US, Europe, and Asia, we offer a wealth of experience in administering a wide range of loans. Powered by cutting-edge technology, our platform delivers comprehensive administration and reporting for middle market and broadly syndicated leveraged loans, catering to the needs of both buy- and sell-side institutions.

Alter Domus provides a full-service administrative process and partnered with our proprietary web portal, CorPro provides reporting technology, forms an extensive platform for your lending and syndication activities and has our exclusive borrower portal. We are SSAE 18 SOC I Type II Certified and our agency services are provided on both a named or white label basis.

Alter Domus' team understands the needs of its lending partners. Our processes are well controlled and performed in a timely manner. Our technology is market leading and supported by an in-house team of developers.
